A Successful Teacher.

The school in No. 2, taught by Mrs. H. H. Moulton of St Johnsbury East, closed Jan. 17 with an examination and rhetorical exercises. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon Mrs. Moulton for her untiring and laborious efforts to have her pupils progress. She taught the river school in 1893 and again in 1895, to the entire satisfaction and even admiration of the whole district. Mrs. Moulton is a teacher of great experience and natural tact combined. She taught her 100th term in town and the winter term that has just closed is her 112th term. She is a teacher who readily imparts to her pupils the knowledge she possesses. She has succeeded in awaken ing interest in those the most indifferent, and success has attended her labors in every instance. The earnestness of purpurpose and great interest which she has thrown into her work, could not fail to produce great results. Mrs. Moulton returned to her home Friday. It is hoped she will return to teach many more terms of school.

Mrs. Eldo Gaskill of West Burke was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gaskill last week Tuesday and Wednesday. Harry H. Moulton of St. Johnsbury closed a very successful term of school in No. 3 Thursday. Mr. Moulton on entering the school room, at once gained the good will of the pupils and succes; was the result. He returned to his home at St. Johnsbury Friday. He leaves many friends not only among his pupils, but outside the school-room, which he has gained by his gentlemanly manners, and pleasant ways. All wish him success in the future.
